the beginning of months.

It shall be the first month of the year for you.”

“Tell all the congregation of Israel that on the tenth day of this month every man shall take a lamb according to their fathers’ houses, then he and his nearest neighbor shall take according to the number of persons; according to what each can eat you shall make your count for the lamb.”

Exodus 12:5-6

“Your lamb shall be without blemish, and you shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month, when the whole assembly of the congregation of Israel shall kill their lambs at twilight.”

and put it on the two doorposts and the lintel of the houses in which they eat it.”

Exodus 12:8-10

“They shall eat the flesh that night,
roasted on the fire;
with unleavened bread and bitter herbs
they shall eat it.

Do not eat any of it raw or boiled in water, but roasted, its head with its legs and its inner parts.

“And you shall
let none of it remain until the morning;
anything that remains until the morning
you shall burn.”

Exodus 12:11-12

“In this manner you shall eat it:
with your belt fastened, your sandals on your feet,
and your staff in your hand.
And you shall eat it in haste.
It is the LORD’s Passover.

“For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt,
both man and beast;
and on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments:
I am the LORD.”

Exodus 12:12-13

‘The Teacher says, Where is my guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?’

And he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready;
there prepare for us.”

Truly, I say to you,
I will not drink again of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God.”

Mark 14:20-21

He said to them,

“It is one of the twelve,
one who is dipping bread into the dish with me.

the Son of Man is betrayed!
It would have been better for that man if he had not been born.”

in order that we might become, in him,
