

John 3:16

For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish
but have eternal life.

John 20:31

These are written so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

Mark 1:15

“The time is fulfilled;
the kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent and believe in the gospel.”

Romans 10:9-10

If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord
and believe in your heart
that God raised him from the dead,
you will be saved.

For with the heart one believes
and is justified,
and with the mouth one confesses
and is saved.

Hebrews 11:1

Now faith is the assurance [hupostasis]
of things hoped for,
the conviction of things not seen.

Hebrews 3:12-14

Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God.
But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called “today,” that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.

For we share in Christ, if indeed
we hold our original confidence firm to the end.

Hebrews 4:1-2

Therefore, while the promise of entering his rest still stands, let us fear lest any of you should seem to have failed to reach it.

For good news came to us just as to them, but the message they heard did not benefit them, because they were not united by faith with those who listened.

Hebrews 6:11-12

And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end, so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

Hebrews 10:21-22; 39

And since we have a great priest over the house of God, let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water....

We are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls.

Hebrews 11:1

Now faith is the assurance [hupostasis]
of things hoped for,
the conviction of things not seen.

Hebrews 11:1

Now faith is the assurance [hupostasis]
of things hoped for,
the conviction of things not seen.

Hebrews 1:3

He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature [hupostasis], and he upholds the universe by the word of his power.

Hebrews 3:14

For we share in Christ, if indeed
we hold our original confidence [hupostasis] firm to the end.

Hebrews 11:1-2

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for,
the conviction of things not seen.

For by it the people of old received their commendation.

Hebrews 11:3

By faith we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible.

Hebrews 11:4

By faith Abel offered to God a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he was commended as righteous,
God commending him by accepting his gifts.

And through his faith, though he died,
he still speaks.

Hebrews 11:5-6

By faith Enoch was taken up so that he should not see death,
and he was not found,
because God had taken him.

Now before he was taken he was commended as having pleased God.

And without faith it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

Hebrews 11:7

By faith Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household.

By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by faith.

The righteous shall live by faith...

How strong a faith...?

How constant a faith...?

How correct a faith...?

Mark 1:15

“The time is fulfilled;
the kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent and believe in the gospel.”

Acts 2:38

And Peter said to them, “Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.”

Romans 10:9-10

If you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord
and believe in your heart
that God raised him from the dead,
you will be saved.

For with the heart one believes
and is justified,
and with the mouth one confesses
and is saved.

John 3:16
