

Hebrews 11:1-2

Now FAITH is the assurance of things hoped for,
the conviction of things not seen.

For by it the people of old received their commendation.

Hebrews 11:3

By FAITH we understand that the universe was created by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things that are visible.

Hebrews 11:4

By FAITH Abel offered to God
a more acceptable sacrifice than Cain, through which he was commended as righteous,
God commending him by accepting his gifts.

And through his FAITH, though he died,
he still speaks.

Hebrews 11:5-6

By FAITH Enoch was taken up so that he should not see death, and he was not found,
because God had taken him.

Now before he was taken he was commended as having pleased God.

And without FAITH it is impossible to please him, for whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him.

Hebrews 11:7

By FAITH Noah, being warned by God concerning events as yet unseen, in reverent fear constructed an ark for the saving of his household.

By this he condemned the world and became an heir of the righteousness that comes by FAITH.

Hebrews 11:8

By FAITH Abraham obeyed
when he was called to go out to a place that he was to receive as an inheritance.
And he went out,
not knowing where he was going.

Hebrews 11:9-10

By FAITH he went to live in the land of promise, as in a foreign land,
living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, heirs with him of the same promise.

For he was looking forward to the city that has foundations, whose designer and builder is God.

Hebrews 11:11-12

By FAITH Sarah herself received power to conceive,
even when she was past the age,
since she considered him FAITHFUL who had promised.

Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead,
were born descendants
as many as the stars of heaven and as many as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.

Hebrews 11:13-14

These all died in FAITH, not having received the things promised,
but having seen them and greeted them from afar, and having acknowledged that they were strangers and exiles on the earth.

For people who speak thus make it clear that they are seeking a homeland.

Hebrews 11:15-16

If they had been thinking of that land from which they had gone out, they would have had opportunity to return.
But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one.

Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for he has prepared for them a city.

Hebrews 11:17-19

By FAITH Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac, and he who had received the promises was in the act of offering up his only son, of whom it was said,

“Through Isaac shall your offspring be named.”

He considered that God was able even to raise him from the dead, from which, figuratively speaking, he did receive him back.

Hebrews 11:20-22

By FAITH Isaac invoked future blessings on Jacob and Esau.

By FAITH Jacob, when dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, bowing in worship over the head of his staff.

By FAITH Joseph, at the end of his life, made mention of the exodus of the Israelites and gave directions concerning his bones.

Hebrews 11:23

By FAITH Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that the child was beautiful, and they were not afraid of the king's edict.

Hebrews 11:24-26

By FAITH Moses, when he was grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter, choosing rather to be mistreated with the people of God than to enjoy the fleeting pleasures of sin.

He considered the reproach of Christ greater wealth than the treasures of Egypt, for he was looking to the reward.

Hebrews 11:27-28

By FAITH he left Egypt, not being afraid of the anger of the king, for he endured as seeing him who is invisible.

By FAITH he kept the Passover and sprinkled the blood, so that the Destroyer of the firstborn might not touch them.

Hebrews 11:29-31

By FAITH the people crossed the Red Sea as if on dry land, but the Egyptians, when they attempted to do the same, were drowned.

By FAITH the walls of Jericho fell down after they had been encircled for seven days.

By FAITH Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had given a friendly welcome to the spies.

And what more shall I say?
For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets – who through FAITH conquered kingdoms, enforced justice, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword,
were made strong out of weakness,
became mighty in war,
put foreign armies to flight.

Hebrews 11:35-38

Women received back their dead by resurrection.
Some were tortured, refusing to accept release, so that they might rise again to a better life.
Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment.
They were stoned, they were sawn in two,
they were killed with the sword.
They went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, afflicted, mistreated – of whom the world was not worthy – wandering about in deserts and mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

And all these,
though commended through their FAITH,
did not receive what was promised,
since God had provided something better for us, that apart from us
they should not be made perfect.

Hebrews 12:1-2

Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely,
and let us run with endurance
the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus,
the founder and perfecter of our FAITH, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.

Hebrews 12:3

Consider him who endured from sinners such hostility against himself, so that you may not grow weary or fainthearted.

AMEN !!!

Hebrews 1:1-3

Long ago, at many times and in many ways, God spoke to our fathers by the prophets,
but in these last days
he has spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed the heir of all things, through whom also he created the world.

He is the radiance of the glory of God and the exact imprint of his nature, and he upholds the universe
by the word of his power.

He left His Father's throne above
So free, so infinite His grace!
Emptied Himself of all but love,
And bled for Adam's helpless race:
'Tis mercy all, immense and free,
For O my God, it found out me!

Amazing love! How can it be,
That Thou, my God, shouldst die for me?

Therefore let us leave the elementary doctrine of Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works and of faith toward God, and of instruction about washings,
the laying on of hands, the resurrection of the dead, and eternal judgment.

And this we will do if God permits.

Hebrews 6:1-6

For it is impossible to restore again to repentance those who have once been enlightened, who have tasted the heavenly gift, and have shared in the Holy Spirit, and have tasted the goodness of the word of God and the powers of the age to come, if they then fall away, since they are crucifying once again the Son of God to their own harm and holding him up to contempt.

Hebrews 6:9-12

Though we speak in this way, yet in your case, beloved, we feel sure of better things – things that belong to salvation.

For God is not so unjust as to overlook your work and the love that you showed for his sake in serving the saints, as you still do.

Hebrews 6:9-12

And we desire each one of you to show the same earnestness to have the full assurance of hope until the end,
so that you may not be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherit the promises.

Hebrews 10:35-39

Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward.

For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God
you may receive what is promised.

Hebrews 10:35-39

For, 'Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay;
but my righteous one shall live by faith,
and if he shrinks back,
my soul has no pleasure in him.'

But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed,
but of those who have faith
and preserve their souls.

Hebrews 11:1

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for,
the conviction of things not seen.

Hebrews 11:1-2

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for,

Hebrews 3:13-14

Exhort one another every day, as long as it is called 'today,' that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.

For we share in Christ,
if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end.

John 16:33

I have said these things to you, that in me you may have peace.

In this world you will have tribulation.
But take heart!
I have overcome the world.
