Luke 18:1-8

And he told them a parable to the effect that they ought always to pray and not lose heart.

He said, “In a certain city there was a judge who neither feared God nor respected man.
And there was a widow in that city who kept coming to him and saying, ‘Give me justice against my adversary.’”

Luke 18:1-8

“For a while he refused,
but afterward he said to himself,
‘Though I neither fear God nor respect man,
yet because this widow keeps bothering me,
I will give her justice, so that she will not beat me down by her continual coming.’”

Luke 18:1-8

And the Lord said,

“Hear what the unrighteous judge says.

And will not God give justice to his elect,
who cry to him day and night?

Will he delay long over them?

I tell you, he will give justice to them speedily.

“Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes,
will he find faith on earth?”

What is prayer?

Prayer is an offering up of our desires unto God,
for things agreeable to his will,
in the name of Christ,
with confession of our sins,
and thankful acknowledgment of his mercies.

What is prayer?

Prayer is an offering up of our desires unto God,
for things AMEN-able to his will,
in the name of Christ,
with confession of our sins,
and thankful acknowledgment of his mercies.

1 Thessalonians 5:16-18

Rejoice always,
pray without ceasing,
give thanks in all circumstances;
for this is the will of God
in Christ Jesus for you.

Colossians 3:1-4

If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is,
seated at the right hand of God.

Set your minds on things that are above,
not on things that are on earth.

For you have died,
and your life is hidden with Christ in God.

When Christ who is your life appears,
then you also will appear with him in glory.

2 Corinthians 10:5

We destroy arguments and every lofty opinion raised against the knowledge of God, and take every thought captive to obey Christ.

Luke 18:9-14

He also told this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and treated others with contempt:

“Two men went up into the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. The Pharisee, standing by himself, prayed thus: ‘God, I thank you that I am not like other men, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I get.’”

Luke 18:9-14

“But the tax collector, standing far off,
would not even lift up his eyes to heaven,
but beat his breast, saying,

‘God, be merciful to me, a sinner!’

“I tell you,
this man went down to his house justified,
rather than the other.

For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled,
but the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Luke 18:15-17

Now they were bringing even infants to him that he might touch them.

And when the disciples saw it,
they rebuked them.

But Jesus called them to him, saying,
“Let the children come to me,
and do not hinder them,
for to such belongs the kingdom of God.
Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child shall not enter it.”

A blind man vs. the crowd

Luke 18:18-27

And a ruler asked him,
“Good Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

And Jesus said to him,
“Why do you call me good?
No one is good except God alone.
You know the commandments:
‘Do not commit adultery, Do not murder,
Do not steal, Do not bear false witness,
Honor your father and mother.’”

And he said,
“All these I have kept from my youth.”

When Jesus heard this, he said to him,
“One thing you still lack.
Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor,
and you will have treasure in heaven;
and come, follow me.”

Luke 18:18-27

But when he heard these things,
he became very sad, for he was extremely rich.

Jesus, looking at him with sadness, said,
“How difficult it is for those who have wealth
to enter the kingdom of God!
For it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of God.”

Luke 18:18-27

Those who heard it said,
“Then who can be saved?”

But he said,
“What is impossible with men
is possible with God.”

Luke 18:28-30

And Peter said, “See, we have left our homes and followed you.”

And he said to them, “Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or wife or brothers or parents or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the age to come eternal life.”

Luke 18:31-34

And taking the twelve, he said to them, “See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written about the Son of Man by the prophets will be accomplished.

For he will be delivered over to the Gentiles and will be mocked and shamefully treated and spit upon. And after flogging him, they will kill him,
and on the third day he will rise.”

Isaiah 50:6-7

I gave my back to those who strike,
and my cheeks to those who pull out the beard;
I hid not my face from disgrace and spitting.
But the Lord GOD helps me;
therefore I have not been disgraced;
therefore I have set my face like a flint,
and I know that I shall not be put to shame.

Luke 18:35-43

As he drew near to Jericho, a blind man was sitting by the roadside begging.

And hearing a crowd going by,
he inquired what this meant.

They told him,

“Jesus of Nazareth is passing by.”

And he cried out,

“Jesus, Son of David,
have mercy on me!”

Luke 18:35-43

And those who were in front rebuked him, telling him to be silent.

But he cried out all the more,

“Son of David, have mercy on me!”

And Jesus stopped and commanded him to be brought to him.

And when he came near, he asked him,

“What do you want me to do for you?”

Luke 18:35-43

He said, “Lord, let me recover my sight.”

And Jesus said to him, “Recover your sight; your faith has made you well.”

And immediately he recovered his sight and followed him, glorifying God.

And all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.
